YOUNG AT ART MUSEUM

The aim of the Young At Art Children's Museum, South Florida is to introduce children to art in an exciting way.

There are lots of things to do. For example, children can use interactive exhibits to create their own work of art. There is even a special gallery for very young children where they can play and explore materials with their hands.

The museum offers lots of activities, too, from birthday parties to field trips. Children can sign up for summer camps, and there are scholarships for talented young artists.

Anyone can become a member of YAA. Membership includes unlimited visits for a year and other discounts.

If you are 15 or older, you can also volunteer at the museum.

26. Children can only see and aren't allowed to touch things in the museum.

27. Children can hold their birthday parties there.

28. The museum offers summer camps for kids.

29. You need to be older than 15 to become a member of YAA.

30. You can visit the museum for free for one year if you are a member of YAA.
