Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 and 36.

In the future, the world of work will change a lot. Many people will work from home because technology will allow them to connect easily. This new way of working can help people balance their jobs and personal lives better. However, some jobs will still need to be done in an office or a factory.

Technology, like robots and computers, will help workers with their tasks. Some jobs may disappear, but new jobs will also be created. For example, there will be a need for individuals to manage robots and work in various technology roles, highlighting the evolving job landscape in the future.

To be successful in the future, workers will need to learn new skills. This means they should be open to learning and trying new things. Good communication skills will also be essential, as teams will collaborate online. Embracing change and continuous learning will help workers adapt to the evolving work environment.

In conclusion, the future of work will be different. People should be ready to adapt and grow in their careers to keep up with these changes.

Question 31. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. The world of work will change because of technology.
