Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 and 36.

E-commerce, which refers to the buying and selling of goods and services over the internet, is becoming increasingly popular around the world. Today, most physical stores in towns and cities also have online platforms where customers can browse and make purchases. In fact, some businesses operate entirely online, without any physical location.

There are several advantages to e-commerce that make it attractive to both customers and businesses. One major benefit is convenience. People can shop at any time of the day or night, from the comfort of their home or even while traveling, as long as they have an internet connection. With just a few clicks or taps, they can compare prices, read product reviews, and find the best deals. Another advantage is the variety of products available. Unlike traditional stores, which have limited space, online stores can offer a much wider selection of items, often from international sellers.

Despite these benefits, e-commerce also comes with certain disadvantages. Security is one concern—if customers enter sensitive information like credit card details on an unsecured website, it could be stolen by cybercriminals. Another drawback is that shoppers cannot physically see, touch, or try the product before buying it, which sometimes leads to disappointment. In addition, shipping fees and delivery delays can be frustrating for some buyers.

Overall, while e-commerce offers great convenience and variety, it also requires careful attention to security and customer satisfaction.

Question 31. What is the passage mainly about?

- A. How online shopping becomes more common
- B. How to shop online safely
- C. The good and bad things about online shopping
- D. The reasons why people shop online

Question 32. What is the OPPOSITE meaning of “major” in the context of the passage?

- A. unimportant
- B. significant
- C. main
- D. outstanding

Question 33. What can customers do more easily with e-commerce?

- A. Try products before buying
- B. Compare prices from different stores
- C. Meet store staff
- D. Make payments in cash

Question 34. What is one possible disadvantage of shopping online?

- A. You must have a credit card if you want to shop online.
- B. Your product can be stolen while it is being shipped.
- C. You may feel unsatisfied as you cannot see the product.
- D. You may be scammed because you do not know the sellers.

Question 35. What is a common issue with shipping in e-commerce?

- A. It is always free
- B. There are no delays
- C. Customers may experience delays in delivery
- D. Products arrive damaged

Question 36. What is the CLOSEST meaning of “unsecured” in the context of the passage?

- A. secure
- B. risky
- C. protected
- D. safe
